

Hamilton Engraving By Hancarville Late 18th Century Battle Scene Greek Mythology Phallus Shield

900 EUR

Signature : Hancarville

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Length : 65

Width : 31

Description

Very beautiful engravings taken from the rare collection of records of Sir Hamilton's ancient vases produced by Hugues d'Hancarville (1719-1805): Collection of Etruscan, Greek and Roman antiquities, taken from the cabinet of Mr. Hamilton, British envoy extraordinary at court of Naples, Naples (François Morelli), 1766-1767.

Our engraving represents a mythological scene from a Greek battle, the central shield bears a motif of phallus with winged purse, certainly as an amulet.

Engraved part only: 65cm x 31 cm
in a 80 x 60 modern varnished wood frame (can be kept or changed)

Dealer

Ars Longa

Fine Art ? Antique & After the Antique

Mobile : 06 30 55 85 75

14 Rue Beauregard

Paris 75002