Description

Pollonnaruwa. Sri Lanka.

7 drawings by the traveling painter with Hindu/Buddhist Pantheon.

Early 20th century.

Maroon ink on thin, slightly transparent paper.

The inscription on the back of each sheet of paper allows us to recognize the place: some are frescoes, others are bas-reliefs found in the temples of Pollonnaruwa in Sri Lanka.

Two drawings with Buddha: a head profile with closed eyes and a 3/4 head

2 drawings of elephants looking at each other.

Two hands with objects: one hand with a scepter and another with bracelets.

The bust of a female deity.

Small imperfections and creases on the edges.
