

Louis Samain (belgium, 1834 - 1901), Large Female Sculpture In Terracotta

6 000 EUR

Signature : Louis Samain (Belgium, 1834 - 1901)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Length : 140 cm

Width : 40

Diameter : 35

Description

Louis Samain (1834-1901) -- Large Terracotta Sculpture "Water Carrier with Child"Dimensions: 140 × 40 × 35 cmMaterial: TerracottaThis impressive terracotta sculpture by Louis Samain, one of Belgium's distinguished 19th-century sculptors, depicts a young water carrier balancing a jug on her head while holding her child. The expressive modelling, graceful posture and finely detailed drapery are characteristic of Samain's refined sculptural language.Louis Samain (Nivelles, 1834 - Ixelles, 1901) studied at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Brussels under Louis Simonis. After winning the Belgian Prix de Rome, he spent several years in Italy, where he further developed his style. His work received international recognition: he was awarded a gold medal at the 1889 Paris Universal Exhibition, and

Dealer

Mora Antiques

Timeless Antiques with Style - Carefully Selected & Worldwide Shipping

Tel : 0031642510212

Mobile : 0032469115104

Keramiekstraat 28

Bilzen 28 3740

in 1895 his work was exhibited at the Société des Artistes Français in Paris. With its impressive height of 140 cm, this sculpture has a strong, almost museum-like presence. The warm terracotta tone enhances its expressive depth and decorative appeal. A remarkable and rare example of 19th-century Belgian sculpture.