Description

Quintaine stone fireplace (Saône et Loire), Louis XV period, in perfect condition. Its slightly animated lintel with projecting ends accommodates an acanthus in its center and a torus runs along its hearth line, it rests on slender console jambs, decorated with chapel reserves. The two non-existent lintel returns were cut in our workshop. Its useful depth, protruding from the wall, is 60 cm. Its body length is 145 cm. The dimensions of its fireplace are 123 cm wide and 91 cm high. You can visit our site: www.claudeaugustin.com
