Description

Important Louis XVI style walnut armchair covered with a studded fabric on the seat, back and armrests. The seat, made in the traditional way with springs and leather, is squared. The armrests, fitted with armrests, are molded with volute eyes and supported by baluster consoles. The uprights and feet are also molded with scrolls and foliage. This base is secured by a movement spacer. We will appreciate this armchair with its generous dimensions which we can rejuvenate with a furnishing fabric in harmony with its interior decoration.  Period: Mid-19th century Excellent condition after restoration in our workshop. Waxed finish. Additional photos available by clicking on the following link: https://www.antiquites-lecomte.com/boutique/sieges/important-fauteuil-en-noyer-style-louis-xvi-m
