Description

Superb and elegant oil painting on canvas from the early 19th century representing a young girl throwing a letter. The young girl is dressed in a long skirt and a red jacket, with a ribbon in her hair. She whispers to a bust of a faun in the garden and drops a letter at its feet. Quality work where the colors have remained original, beautiful finesse of the line and original scene. The painting is presented in its period gilded wooden frame, signed lower right GÉRARD, all in perfect original condition.
