Description

In 1962 in Milan, Aldo and Giuliana Majer were already supplying parts for Alfa Romeo, Vespa and Olivetti. This distributor was designed by their friend, then a young architect, Angelo Mangiarotti who would become one of the most famous industrial designers. This gumball machine is a true icon of the Italian sixties. The coin mechanism works, 1FB coins are provided. Marked hard in the metal "Rheavendors". Acrylic globe. Reference:
