

French Empire-style Small Entryway Console From The 1800s, Made Of Mahogany Featherwood

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 56

Height : 106

Depth : 36

Description

Small French Empire-style console cabinet from the second half of the 1800s, made of mahogany and mahogany featherwood. It features an upper section with a small flat surface, a central section with a mirror and two columns adorned with bronze elements, a lower section with a small door; it is finished with metal casters.

Origin: France

Period: Second half of the 1800s

Style: Empire

Dimensions: 56x36x106h cm

Dealer

Centro Mercato Antiquariato

www.centromercatoantiquariato.it shop online antiques

Tel : +39 3469410359

via Foggia 37/39

Barletta 76121