Description

Charming pine bonnetière, composed of a surface-mounted door opening on small iron hinges. This door has an entrance and a lock in perfect working order. Inside, we discover two large fixed shelves and a small shallow one at the top. This antique furniture benefits from uprights covered on the edge with a molding and decorated with a plant sculpture at the top. This little hosiery rests on ball feet and has a framed top and reserve. Its small size and warm color will make this hat an asset in the room of your choice.  Period: 1920 Very good condition after restoration. Waxed finish.
