Description

Hand Tufted Rug, Lady Unicorn Design, Circa 1970

What is the Hand Tufted rug?

Soft, soft and perfectly suited to contemporary designs, the hand-tufted rug, also called Hand Tuft or Asian Point, has become a reference in the world of designer rugs.

This technique offers the artisan upholsterer great freedom of creation. Tufting is a process using artisanal manufacturing methods, ancestral know-how mainly developed in India and China, and modern weaving tools.

The weaving is carried out by hand, the craftsman implanting the textile wicks, directly into a cotton canvas, a canvas stretched on a vertical loom.

Tufting is carried out using a strand gun, following the colors, design and different roving heights of the product.

The tufting technique allows us to produce high quality products and allow for all the eccentricities! Shapes, colors, designs, relief, everything is possible with an exceptional result. It is, for example, possible to sculpt carpets, the fiber is then implanted at maximum relief height then sculpted using scissors and razors. This method is also called "Carving". Carved rugs are truly exceptional pieces and are highly prized for their particularly luxurious finished appearance.

This model is signed by an unknown artist called "Kell" Limited series 14/300.

The unicorn lady is centered in a rainbow of clouds.

The unicorn, a mythical single-horned animal, has been present for centuries in legends and myths around the world.

A symbol of purity, wisdom and strength, it has today become a real phenomenon in popular culture.

Unicorns have the natural power to detect lies.

Unicorns sense evil energy and dark magic: they can pierce through a liar's game. In fact, you have bad intentions, seeing such pure and fascinating creatures may give you pause!

The nature of the Lady of the Unicorn :

A vision of paradise, in the light of Christian thought and a garden of love in the aristocratic and courtly sense.

The thick, high-quality wool from New Zealand guarantees absolute comfort and softness that has nothing to do with a traditional hand-knotted rug.
