

A 1st Empire Period (1804 - 1815) Pair Of Chairs.

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 47

Height : 92

Depth : 41,5

Description

A 1st Empire period pair of chairs attributed to Jacob Desmalter (1770 - 1841), son of Georges Jacob, en bois mouluré, sculpté et laqué. The chairs are stamped by the Inventory stamp of the Louis-Philippe period (three fleurs de lys in a oval) and by the Inventory stamps of the Mobilier National for Fontainebleau F16258/2S, F 3669. Jacob Desmalter supplied during the 1st Empire period the national palaces such as Saint-Cloud, Compiègne, Fontainebleau, Meudon, Rambouillet, Palais des Tuileries. Provenance : Fontainebleau castle. France. 19th century.

Dealer

Antiquités Arnaud Catel

Antiquités et objets d'art

Mobile : +33 (0)6 74 29 84 33

Marché Biron Galerie 58 - Allée 1, 85 rue des rosiers
Saint-Ouen 93400