Description

Elegant pair of tazzas resting on an onyx base. Cups decorated in the center of the bust in the antique style surrounded by a line of animals (lion, panther, horse, bull, goat... in a forest of oak branches) heart-shaped handles chiseled with palmettes. These tazzas in the style of the antique bear the signature of the bronze maker Ferdinand Levillain (1837-1905) accompanied by that of the founder Ferdinand Barbedienne (1810-1892). The onyx bases have no shine, beautiful gilding without oxidation!
