Description

Oils on hardboard panel. First half of the 20th century. - The Luxembourg Gardens with the spectacular Medici Fountain. Dimensions: 24.7cm x 20cm - The Pantheon seen from the busy square and cars on the road. Dimensions: 25cm x 19.7cm Both signed Vieillard (signature barely visible); which can be attributed to Maurice Vieillard (1867-1947), a Le Havre painter whose representations of Paris and its gardens were one of his favorite themes. Good condition. In their own juice. Probably deserves a light cleaning. Many other objects to discover in my stand at the antique fairs in which I participate.
