Description

Elegant solid mahogany and mahogany veneer table, with reversible top and pulls. This small desk has a drawer on the front pulled out by two brass lens buttons. It has a key and a recessed net entry. The lock is vintage and in perfect working order. This table rests on four sheathed legs, in solid mahogany. The work space consists of a top with a miter cut frame and strips around its perimeter. It is trimmed with green leather surrounded by a Greek frieze. At each end, a retractable pull-tab decorated with a small brass lens button, is dark in leather, harmonizing perfectly with the top of the desk. This small piece of furniture has the particularity of being able to transform into a games table. In fact, the tray turns around and positions itself perfectly again. We discover a beautiful green felt
