Description

Watercolor and gouache painting from the 19th century representing an animated equestrian scene with a young man and his horses near a pond. Very nice quality of execution of this work having kept all its original freshness with its very bright colors. Note the presence of its original frame with its period patina and its fine gold edging. Frame dimensions 28 by 34 cm. Romantic work that can be assumed to be inspired by a short story by George Sand or Guy de Maupassant. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier and by secure package.
