Description

Small console in blond walnut topped with black French marble. It opens in a belt with a drawer equipped with an original functional lock with fitted key and brass thread entry. This belt as well as the returns are highlighted at the bottom by a slight half-round. This part is supported on the front by two curved legs at the top with an interior butt tapering slightly towards the bottom and ending in claw feet at the front. The rear pillars are straight. The whole rests on a spacer base above in solid walnut with overflow, concave on the front and half-round at the corners. This base ends with two "galette" feet turned from the period on the front. This small property console will please for its size, its character and its beautiful walnut color.
