Description

Intimate Scene, Family Portrait From the Beginning of the 19th Century.

Remarkable family portrait in an interior. it is an oil on canvas representing a mother with her daughters in a directoire interior.

they are dressed, dressed and wearing fashionable jewelry of the time.

great finesse of details, in the rendering of maternal tenderness which emerges from the scene, the bond between the mother and her two daughters is very present, even touching.

the setting, the room where they are also very well painted, the Louis XVI woodwork as well as the doors, the mirror on the right in two parts, the vase, the directorate chairs.

even if there is a little naivety which also emerges on certain details , the atmosphere is extremely
