Description

Oil lamp formed by a sculpture (in regula green patina) signed G. Bareau* representing a winged woman holding a torch (formed by the lamp part), Allegory of Glory, entitled "Gloria", red marble base and container in crystal (most certainly from Baccarat), Duplex n°2 brass system, vintage late 19th century. This lamp is in good condition and is of exceptional quality. The system works. It is very decorative. The sculpture is signed on the terrace, + plaque "Gloria par G. Bareau Salon de 1892" on the base. Note: the hand has certainly been glued back to the lamp part (small trace of restoration), some wear on the patina, wear and tear, see photos. * Georges Marie Valentin Bareau (1866-1931) is a French sculptor. He entered the École des Beaux-arts in Paris where he was a student of Charles Gauthier and
