Description

Large pewter dish,
Bergerac 17th century
Presence of two hallmarks, including the control hallmark imposed by Louis XIV in 1657 and compulsory from 1691 which required the name of the city, the letter C (commun) or F (fin) to be affixed in a circular hallmark and the date of 1691
Here it is a master potter from "Bergerac" south-west, current Dordogne Diameter: 35.7 cm
The so-called common pewter was reserved for dishes, it contains a fairly high proportion of lead (10 to 20%) (unlike the end 10%)
Partial wear from use, good general condition
