

Rare Vintage Floor Lamp In Forged Iron And Opaline, Sculptural Italian Design From The 1960s

1 400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Height : 184 cm

Description

This rare and fascinating floor lamp embodies the elegance and creativity of 1960s Italian design. Made from forged iron and opaline glass, it features sculptural, fluid lines that evoke the organic and futuristic aesthetics of the time. Its sleek, curved black metal silhouette harmonizes beautifully with the opaline glass shade, creating a soft, soothing light ideal for a living room, office, or bedroom. The opaline shade diffuses a gentle light, perfect for creating a warm, refined ambiance.

Key Features:

Materials: Forged iron and opaline glass

Design: Sculptural, fluid lines, typical of Italian modernist movement

Dealer

Galerie Renaissance

Design | Antiques | Art | Minimalism | Art Deco | Modern |
1950s

Mobile : 06 73 03 23 14

85 rue des Rosiers, Galerie 28

Saint-Ouen 93400

Period: 1960s, reflecting the innovative and avant-garde spirit of the era

Dimensions:

Opaline shade: Height 26 cm, Width 20 cm,
Depth 20 cm

Forged iron frame: Height 184 cm, Diameter 3
cm

Opaline base: Diameter 33 cm, Height 3 cm

This floor lamp is more than just a light source; it is a true work of art, blending refinement with functionality. Its rare design and exceptional craftsmanship make it a sought-after collector's piece for lovers of exceptional Italian design. It fits perfectly into modern, minimalist, or industrial interiors, adding timeless sophistication to any room.