Gustave Reynaud (1915 - 1972)

In 1955, accompanied by his wife Jacqueline, he let himself be tempted by the ceramic adventure which has been booming since the arrival of the potter painter Picasso at Madoura in 1948. The couple founded their house-workshop of ceramic 'Le Murier', in Vallauris in reference to the name of the district. Engraved or cast under enamel, the stylized decorations deal with floral or animal themes, most often birds and abstract motifs for utility and decorative ceramics.
