Description

Noria in the Balearic Islands: dwelling and agricultural installation typical of the Mediterranean, treated in flats. The yellow and orange sky contrasts with the elements of the landscape which are already in shadow. A work with a strong presence. Signed Avana (contraciton of Albert van Achter) lower left. Perfect condition, framed in American crate. Albert van Achter is a Dutch painter who has lived for many years in Lesneven, Brittany (France). He mainly paints Mediterranean scenes and regularly exhibits in his region. Work visible in the gallery (07240) Shipping: contact us for transport costs.
