Description

Exceptional Louis XV period chest of drawers in amaranth and violet wood. This high chest of drawers opens with 4 drawers spread over 3 rows. It is inlaid with sycamore fillets and trefoils. The frame of the top is in rosewood. It is elegantly dressed in discreet but quality bronzes. The bottom of the sides is hectic and the feet are arched. It is an extraordinary chest of drawers with significant decorative potential. Fully treated and restored.
Two restorations on the main plate.
