Description

Vintage lamp from the 50s and 60s in lucite plexiglass by Danielle Quarante, Cyclade model. Very beautiful, high quality lamp listed in the works of this great designer specializing in plexiglass work and lucite works. Very soft and pleasant light diffused by a double lampshade allowing a pale yellow or white glow depending on the type of bulb. Interesting and original contrast created by the use of light lucite and the darker plexiglass foot. Excellent original state of conservation for this collector's lamp which will give a very decorative presence to a quality interior. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier and by secure package.
