Description

""Nude" by François Bouché 1924 - 2005" Very beautiful drawing on paper pasted on wood measuring 65 cm x 50cm plus frame Signed and dated lower right Bouché François Bouché was a designer, painter and above all a sculptor from Marseille. Student of Germaine Richier, Brancusi, Zadkine and H. Laurens His works appear in major international museums and in large private collections. This artist enjoyed great success during his lifetime, receiving state commissions. For François Bouché, drawing has always been a privileged means of expression; no sculptures without preparatory drawings. From there, his exhibitions were sometimes devoted to drawing From 1951, he was appointed professor at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts de Marseille-Luminy This drawing is a preparatory study for the
