Description

Ring with a modern setting in 18-carat gold (eagle's head hallmark, finger size: 58). Rome. 3rd century AD (intaglio). Pantheist goddess standing three-quarters to the left. It is part of a well-known type for which the figure displays the attributes of several goddesses: here the cornucopia of Fortuna in the left hand and the cornucob of Ceres in the right. Pretty carnelian, bright. 14 x 11mm 12g
