Description

Ceremonial table Inlaid Decor Mythological Scenes "It is in Italy that this table takes us, for a journey to the heart of Roman mythology. In the center of the tray depicting Mercury, caduceus in hand, on his chariot pulled by horses in marquetry. This ceremonial table made for an Italian palace, presents an extraordinary inlaid decoration on a rosewood background, all sides are worked, top, feet, belt and drawer are decorated with friezes, foliage, puttis, grotesques, volutes and foliage, in the corners. The protruding parts, edges of the top, spheres surmounting the legs, which gives a beautiful contrast to the whole and also gives an incredible modernity to this piece which can also be integrated into a designer interior or contemporary. This table can serve as a display console in a hall, or, with its drawer, as a
