Description

This pretty writing table is made from various woods, mainly walnut for the top, the belt and the spacer, the five uprights are in a different species that we have not identified, perhaps a variety of mahogany or a exotic wood, darker than the rest of the furniture, they offer a pleasant contrast with the lighter parts. The front opens with two drawers which are pulled out using wooden buttons, they are decorated in the center with a rosette. Late 17th century period. Tray dimensions 104 cm x 64 cm, height 69 cm.
