Description

18th Louis XVI chest of drawers inlaid with projection and stamped JLF LEGRY who demonstrated great talent as a marquetry maker and achieved mastery in 1779. It opens with 5 drawers in 3 rows, this chest of drawers is inlaid in its center on the 2 large drawers without crossbars with magnificent marquetry, bouquet of flowers (roses, irises, carnations etc.) in a very beautiful vase with different types of wood (cicomore, plum, pear, tulip tree, green stained wood etc.) , on an olive tree background framed with amaranth. In the belt, 3 drawers decorated with chevrons extending on the sides. The 4 projecting uprights are decorated with simulated grooves. Very good quality of chiseled bronzes. Its turquin blue marble is highlighted by a groove and cut out by the central projection and the 4
