Description

Oil on canvas, 35cm x 27cm, plus period wooden frame 55cm its fair value He was a student at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Marseille, where he obtained, in 1880, the first prizes for painting and drawing, then, the following year, the Jules Cantini Prize. He then attended the Académie Julian in Paris. His profession was described as brilliant. His works appear in various museums. The painting that I am presenting to you represents a man wearing a hat in a style close to Rembrandt. There were some retractions of painting in places which would tend to give an additional charm to this canvas free shipping to the European Union
