Description

Nice rustic Flemish butcher's block

Very heavy, solid top made of wooden blocks

Beautiful weathered and worn table top, probably a right handed butcher who has worked there for a long time

Original brass corner plates and beautiful aged copper sleeves on the table legs

A small space in the back to store knives 2 large drawers offer plenty of storage

Heavily worn and rustic piece, but still very solid without major losses, early 1900s and in very good condition

151 cm long 104 cm high (back) 76 high (front)

70 cm total depth
