Description

This striking, antique fireplace is made out of the Brocatelle-Violette du Jura marble, during the second half of the nineteenth century. It is modest-decorated with flutes (canelures) on its frieze and jambs. The shelf is double moulded and has rounded corners. A Louis XVI style fireplace would fit well, with most modern-room designs. The expressive colors of the Brocatelle marble gives relief to this elegant fireplace. Fireplace will be delivered with original, old Carrara marble floortiles, to finish a frontfloor. Also in stock: Original grey-black decor-foyertiles in the same Louis XVI-style. Easy to re-install. Worldwide shipping. Delivery within Europe, can be done by Antique Fireplaces First: 'In House Delivery'.
