Description

Anthropomorphic cup representing a female figure with stylized volumes. The small ovoid head, with minimalist features, is supported by a cylindrical neck. The broad bust with square shoulders is decorated with fine scarifications, while the conical breasts attest to the feminine character of the character. The receptacle abdomen, deeply sculpted, rests on small spread legs. Dark and shiny patina. Ritual object intended to collect palm wine and libations during rites and ceremonies. REGION: Nigeria MATERIAL: Wood PERIOD: 20th century DIMENSION: 44.5 x 8 x 7.5 cm (Base)
