Description

This beautiful, very decorative complete coffee grinder is a known model from the Sarreguemines factory which bears the DV brand of the Digoïn and Vitry-le-François branches used during the occupation in the 1940s.

In addition to its good condition, it is remarkable for its quite rare and sought-after Provencal decoration, with a life-size cicada (with a very slight chip on its top), a yellow and red gradient background on which are painted a cicada aure singing on an olive branch. The base and the handle are made of wood while the mechanism, the crank and the cover are made of metal, the receptacle being made of glass and original
