

Urbania, Dish With "a Istoriato" Decor Representing Judith And Holofernes. 17th Century.

4 500 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 39 cm

Description

Round Italian earthenware dish from Urbania (?) with polychrome "a istoriato" decoration in the center of Judith holding the head of Holofernes*, the body of the latter resting in a tent on the left. Landscape in the background. Wing decorated with flowers. Seventeenth century. Diameter: 39 cm. Small crack on the wing around 7am.*Holofernes, king of Nineveh and general of Nebuchadnezzar, besieged Bethulia, a small town in Palestine. Judith, widow of Manasseh and to save her city, put on her best dress and reached the enemy camp. Judith takes advantage of Holofernes' drunkenness after a banquet to cut off his head.

Dealer

JM BEALU & FILS

Old ceramics

Tel : 01 45 48 46 53

3 rue du Bac

Paris 75007