Description

Magnificent curved Louis of the Duke of Württemberg. One of the best regional cabinetmakers of his time and the best known in a line of Montbéliard craftsmen. He produces numerous pieces of furniture, chests of drawers, secretaries, etc. that are well proportioned and very well executed. Until the beginning of the reign of Louis XVI, Couleru produced a quantity of chests of drawers, desks, secretaries, etc. carefully crafted and tastefully decorated. However, it seems that he has made a specialty of sloped desks which represent almost half of the furniture we know today. do not hesitate to contact me for more information in order to purchase with full knowledge in good condition
