Diameter : 120

Height : 80

Description

Game set of a special design. The pentagonal table is complemented by the 5 rosewood seats, characterised by their hollow thicknesses, harmonious curves and also unexpected comfort. The undercounter of the table conceals ashtrays for each of the players, some of which are currently incomplete. The concealed drawer inside has a curved bottom with an invitation for chips and cards. Datable to the 1940s from a private residence in Crevalcore where Bega was commissioned to design the interior.
