Description

Eugène BAZIN (1799-1866) General Bréa and the insurgents of June 1848, gouache, 11 x 18 cm, signed lower right. On the back inscription "Party granted to General Bréa to surrender Barrière de Fontainebleau". 19th century frame. Framed dimensions 27 x 34 cm.

General Bréa was charged in 1848 with operating against the insurgents on the left bank of the Seine, he had succeeded in pushing them outside the walls: in the hope of bringing them back by peaceful means, he advanced to parley in outside the Fontainebleau barrier (current Place d'Italie) but he was seized and killed on June 25, 1848.
