Description

Exceptional Eucharistic display canopy, throne with carved wooden crown with uprights, gilded and silvered - 18th century. Carved, Gilded and Silvered Wooden Throne from the 18th century. The slightly oval-shaped crown is made up of volutes alternating with friezes with gold leaf and silver inserts. The crown is edged with lambrequins with knurled decorations. It has original gilding and silvering, in good general condition with minimal signs of wear compatible with the early 18th century dating. Corresponding to the lambrequins, there are two openings on the side where the two uprights are inserted, the connection irons are original from the time. The uprights are sculpted in scrolls and enriched with floral and leaf motifs. Good state of conservation. The base of the uprights is squared in raw wood,
