Oil on canvas signed upper right by Dieter (or Didier) Grandt and dated 1969. This painting represents a lively scene from the Place du Tertre in Montmartre, with the Sacré-Cœur basilica in the background. The scene takes place in winter, under a twilight blue sky from which the silhouette of a tree stands out, all contrasting with the white of the facades of the buildings and the Sacré-Cœur which capture the last light of the day, as well as with the bright colors of the cafe fronts and the coats of onlookers who casually listen to a guitarist playing music on the sidewalk. This contrast of colors brings the painting to life. Canvas size : 46 cm x 61 cm Frame size : 64 cm x 80 cm Dieter Grandt was born in Heiddorf in Germany in 1934. He entered the Stanatliche Hochschule of Art in Hamburg from 1951 where
