Description

Interesting wooden sculpture. Contextual biography ReflexCity does not seek to retrace the complete biographies of celebrities, which would duplicate a multitude of other sites that are much more detailed and precise, which everyone can easily consult. We limit ourselves here to briefly situating the personality and highlighting his links with the Brussels region, chronologically and geographically. Sculptor born in Puurs in 1882. Very active in Brussels, particularly in Schaerbeek, in the years preceding the First World War. He worked extensively in collaboration with the architect René Doom, notably on the creation of the latter's personal house, avenue du Diamant n°143. For a time he had his studio on rue Wiertz, in an artists' district of Ixelles. sculptor often exhibited in Antwerp
