the young princess, torn from life so early, whose faith and piety were recognized virtues. Marie d'Orléans decided to intensify the feminine character of her heroine, by lengthening her tunic with a simplicity of lines that touches perfection. The military elements are moved aside, placed on a cipe, placed to the left rear of Joan of Arc. The gauntlets are arranged in such a way that they evoke two hands in prayer. And from behind, the helm of extreme sobriety. COPYRIGHT LES TRESORS DE GAMALIEL
