Description

Beautiful Paris porcelain cooler lid, most certainly from the Sèvres factory given the shape of the grip on this lid found on Sèvres porcelain coolers. It presents a charming decoration with cornflowers, also known as cornflowers, which can be found growing in wheat.

This decoration of small wild flowers was favored by Queen Marie-Antoinette.

This lid, in used condition, has five small chips around its edge (one of which is a little larger).

External diameter: 21 cm / Socket diameter: 14.6 cm

Height: 8 cm/ Weight: 894 g
