Description

By Emile Cabanon jewelry, silversmith, goldsmith, 21 rue de la Loge, Montpellier

The silver sculpture of the Virgin Mary and child Jesus on a rosewood background surrounded by a pretty gilded bronze frame with its stoup to the front, the back with a paper label for "Emile Cabanon, Bijouterie, Joaillerie, Orfèverie, 21 rue de la Loge, Montpellier".

Representing Notre-Dame des Victoires located in the Basilica at Place des Petits-Pères in the 2nd arrondissement of Paris.

The statue of Notre-Dame des Victoires, installed in 1809, is made of hardened plaster, probably the work of an Italian sculptor. It replaces the statue of Our Lady of Savona, which disappeared in 1796. On March 25, 1843, the body of Saint Aurelie in her shrine was installed at the foot of
