Description

Stained bone and horn marquetry casket.
Embriachi workshops, 15c.

Embriachi workshops, early 15th century.

Measures 8 x 22 x 15 cm.

The casket is a rectangular form, inlaid with bone, green stained bone, ebony, tortoiseshell and boxwood.

The Embriachi workshop was founded by Baldassare degli Embriachi in Venice in the early 15th century. It specialised in caskets which consist of wood carcasses mounted with small reliefs of ivory or cow bone and certosina wood borders.
