Description

Neoclassical pencil and watercolor drawings from the art deco period. 15 study drawings of piers for presentation to customers. Christian Krass reveals his art by copying and modernizing the work of his illustrious predecessors. he is out of step with his time, both more innovative and more attached to the value of the past. its stamp alone is the embodiment of what it displays. the realism and the settings offer us its entire universe. 4 designs 27cm/36cm. their condition adds a little more charm to the whole.
