Description

Oil on canvas which represents the portrait of a young woman wearing a long necklace. Her hairstyle is boyish, a typical hairstyle of her time. Looking a little melancholy, well-defined lips highlighted by scarlet lipstick. The treatment of the subject typical of the Art Deco era, muted colors in nuanced sienna tones, typical of the artist's palette. Signed and dated 1930 lower right. The artist who has been the subject of an important bibliography is listed in Bénézit as well as in the Dictionary of painters in Montmartre by André Roussard. I'll let you discover his life, his encounters with the great artists of his time and his beautiful artistic journey as a painter, watercolorist, illustrator, theater set painter punctuated by numerous exhibitions, both personal and collective - notably at the Galerie
