Description

Pretty port furniture in solid Cuban mahogany, work from the Louis XVI period. Our scriban chest of drawers includes four drawers in three rows, two large and two small, a dark flap in recent gilded leather revealing six small drawers including two secret drawers around the door which is dark with a mirror, sliding shelf . Handles and keyholes in gilded bronze. In good general condition, although with some small accidents and old restorations. This solid mahogany furniture was very expensive at the time and often made in Nantes or Bordeaux, quite rare on the market.
