Description

Extraordinary Bechir carpet, also called Ersari-Bechir, originating from the Amu-Daria region, former emirate of Bocchara, Afghanistan and Turkmenistan.

This rug measures 227 cm wide by 417 cm long. These magnificent pieces are knotted by the Turkmen Ersari tribes, in wool on wool, warp, weft and velvet.

These carpets have one of the richest ornamentations in the art of knotting Turkmen carpets from Central Asia and are among the most beautiful. They often have geometric filling and patterns in staggered alignments, as we can see on our model.

The colors are, very pronounced brick red or tile red filling most of the carpet, therefore used as the main color of the ornaments and tight
