Description

Pretty canvas by Colette Beleys representing a Provençal landscape, signed lower right + two of the studio stamp on the back of the canvas Format without frame 46x33cm This is therefore a beautiful post-impressionist composition with a naive tendency by Colette Beleys who paints a landscape here, very probably Provençal, we can indeed see cypresses, a terrace, a flower bed and at least some hills. Here she uses a very nervous touch, hatched in places, rich in material and colors. Colette Beleys born December 20, 1911 in Paris and died January 23, 1998 in Ennery (Val-d'Oise) is a French painter. Active in Paris, his workshop was located in the Montparnasse district, rue Huyghens. She worked there for around sixty years. In this workshop many artists who were his friends rubbed shoulders, including
